NO FUNDS TO PAY WAGES, SAYS CRAIG

Comptroller Suggests Way for New Transit Employees to Get Salaries.

Francis M. Scott, counsel for the Transit Commission, called on Comp. troller Craig to-day to arrange for th payment of the complesces of the new commission who were transferred from the former Public service Commission. So far only such employees of the new commission as were unifor former Commissioner Delancy have been put by the city. The Compireller told Mr. Scott that the reason he could not pay the other employees was because there was no appropriation. The Knight-Aller law, the Compireller explained, pravided for a transfer of a tung sun, from the old to the new commissions, but no transfer of funds was provided for those employees who served under the Public Service branch and are now in the transit brained of the service. Mr. Craig explained it would be necessary for the new Transft Commissioner to make application for the required finds to the Board of Estimate. It was said that sum an application would be made Friday. remmission who were trunsferred from
